

23.1. Prepositions23.1.1. Ergänze mit IN, AT, oder ON:

What are you doing...at...the moment? I'm watching a Western movie.....TV.

The sheriff's office is over there the left. It's front of the railroad station.

What is "Wildwest" Englisch? Look your dictionary.

Look the cowboys. They are the street.

23.1.2. Ergänze mit OF, FROM, FOR:

The shop is open Tuesday to Saturday.

Can I have a glass milk please?

Let's wait Sue after school.

Where are you? – Austria.

23.1.3. Ergänze mit ON, OUT oder AT:

Caroline is not home. She is with her boy- friend.

There is always much traffic this road noon.

Look my cat. She 's sitting the table.

Can you find who is waiting the bus stop?

23.2. "He, she, it, das S muss mit!"Look at this:

I come from England, but Carmen ...comes... from Spain.

Now do it in the same way:

We come from Germany, but Dimitri from Greece.

She doesn't like the winter, but she the summer.

Arnold comes from Austria, but Hans und Erich from Germany.

They don't like skiing, but they skating.

We don't' come from Spain. We from Brazil.

I like cold weather, but he warm weather.

He comes from America, but she from England.

Iwan and Sergej are from Russia, but Iwana from Bulgaria.

We are from Switzerland, but you from Burundi.

They live in France, but you and your brother in Italy.

We do our homework, but shenothing.

