

25.1. Which parts go together? Verbinde mit Linien:

The older the wine
The further they walked
The longer it snowed
The faster you finish
The harder she worked
The older you are
The foggier it became
The more expensive the bike

the more tired they became.
the sooner you can go.
the better the taste.
the more money she earned.
the more difficult is to learn.
the more slippery the roads got.
the better the quality.
the harder it was to see clearly.

25.2. Simple present or Present progressive? Setze die Sätze in die einfache Gegenwart oder in die Verlaufsform (-ing-Form, immer dann, wenn man "jetzt gerade" sagen kann)

The sun...rises..... (rise) in the east and (set) in the west.

They (take) their dog for a walk every evening.

Why (you stare) out of the window?

Look. Our neighbours (have) a barbecue in their garden.

I (stay) at the Ibis hotel whenever I'm in Paris.

My car is in the garage. That's why I (walk).

Garry (not like) black coffee.

Listen. Mary (sing) in her room.

Oh! The cat(drink) our milk.

25.3. Adjective or adverb?

Füge das Wort als Adjektiv oder als Adverb ein:

Please, drive ...carefully...! careful / carefully

..... they heard a loud scream. sudden / suddenly

Some passengers were injured by the crash-down. serious / seriously

It is too to go for a swim in this river. dangerous / dangerously

The children played on the lawn behind the house. happy / happily

Please be We don't have much time. quick / quickly

This was a accident. bad / badly

This sausage smells really good / well.

Have you seen a good film ? late / lately