

25.1. Which parts go together? Verbinde mit Linien:

The older the wine		the more tired they became.
The further they walked		the sooner you can go.
The longer it snowed		the better the taste.
The faster you finish		the more money she earned.
The harder she worked		the more difficult is to learn.
The older you are		the more slippery the roads got.
The foggier it became		the better the quality.
The more expensive the bike		the harder it was to see clearly.

25.2. Simple present or Present progressive? Setze die Sätze in die einfache Gegenwart oder in die Verlaufsform (-ing-Form, immer dann, wenn man "jetzt gerade" sagen kann)

The sun...rises..... (rise) in the east and (set) in the west.

They (take) their dog for a walk every evening.

Why (you stare) out of the window?

Look. Our neighbours (have) a barbecue in their garden.

I (stay) at the Ibis hotel whenever I'm in Paris.

My car is in the garage. That's why I (walk).

Garry (not like) black coffee.

Listen. Mary (sing) in her room.

Oh! The cat(drink) our milk.

25.3. Adjective or adverb?

Füge das Wort als Adjektiv oder als Adverb ein:

Please, drive ...carefully...! careful / carefully

..... they heard a loud scream. sudden / suddenly

Some passengers were injured by the crash-down. serious / seriously

It is too to go for a swim in this river. dangerous / dangerously

The children played on the lawn behind the house. happy / happily

Please be We don't have much time. quick / quickly

This was a accident. bad / badly

This sausage smells really good / well.

Have you seen a good film ? late / lately