

28.1. About activities, past participle. Setze das Partizip Perfekt ein:

Have you ever .....eaten..... (to eat) Japanese food? (Hast du schon mal Japanisch gegessen?)

Have you ever ..... (to watch) an opera?

Have you ever ..... (seen) „Bridget Jones’s Diary“?

Have you ever ..... (to try) to spell Deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA)?

Have you ever ..... (to visit) the Guggenheim Museum in New York?

Have you ever ..... (to be) to Dublin, Ireland?

Have you ever ..... (to go) to a Keep Fit Class?

Have you ever ..... (to drink) a "Dr.Pepper"?

Have you ever ..... (to take) your dog to a fine restaurant?

Have you ever ..... (to write) a love story?

Have you ever ..... (to invite) Jessica to a party?

Have you ever ..... (to show) her your room?

28.2. About Bridget Jones – Streiche die unrichtige Variante durch:

Bridget Jones is a single, thirty-three months / year old woman who / which has a monotonous fashion / life. She has any / some bad habits - smoking and drinking too many / much - but every year she writes her New Year's resolutions in her diary, determined to stop / finish smoking, drink no more than fourteen alcohol units a week, and eat diet food. Bridget's mother is bored / excited with her life as a housewife in the country / landscape and leaves Bridget's father. Bridget likes flirting with her son / boss, Daniel Cleaver. A successful lawyer named / labelled Mark Darcy also keeps popping into Bridget's life, having / being extremely awkward, and sometimes coming off a bit rude. After Bridget and Mark reach an understanding / the fortunes of each other and find a sort of happiness / dumbness together, she gains some poverty / self-esteem and cuts down on her cigarette consumption. However, Bridget's obsession with self-help books plus several shooting stars / misunderstandings cannot keep the couple / combo together forever.