

Die folgenden Sätze stehen im Past. Unterstreiche die Zeitangaben. Verwandle die Sätze anschließend ins Perfekt unter Auslassung der Zeitangabe.

- He was here last night. ...He has been here.....
- I tried to call him yesterday morning.....
- Sue cooked the dinner at half past six. ....
- We saw some good matches last season. ....
- She left Boston three months ago. ....
- I sent him an email last night.....
- Did you see him yesterday? .....
- Who went with her when she left?.....

In which of the sentences can we put “has”?

- He ..... already painted that bookcase. He ..... painted it a week ago.
- She ..... read the letter this morning. She ..... just given it to me.
- She .....bought a DVD. She .....bought it this morning.
- The chef ..... just boiled the egg. He ..... boiled it a minute ago.

Kein HAVE oder HAS bei Zeitangaben der Vergangenheit (yesterday, 1066, last year, ten minutes ago), weil ein Satz mit einer solchen Zeitangabe nämlich immer im Past und nie im Perfekt steht.

Sir John Scott

Sir John Scott has had an interesting life. When he left school at the age of fifteen, he worked in a mine. He was a miner for six years. He went to evening school, too. What else?

- He has played football for England.
He played for England in 1969, when he was twenty years old.
- He has fought in two wars.
He fought in the battle for the Falklands in 1982, and he was a member of the Operation Desert Storm. He became a colonel.
- He has been in America. He has worked as a cowboy.
He was in Texas in 1987. He even won a rodeo.
- He has been on expeditions.
In 2001 he sailed down the Amazon in a canoe.
His wife went with him.
- He has written a book about his adventures.
It came out two years ago.
- He has been an active member of the Labour Party.
In 1999 the Queen knighted him.

He still likes adventure. He finds it as head of a School of Adventure in the north west of Scotland, where students learn rock-climbing, canoeing, map reading and a lot of other things.

Fill in the correct verb form:

- |                                      |                  |
|--------------------------------------|------------------|
| John Scott.....football for England. | spielen   |
| He .....against Germany in 1969.     | spielen   |
| He ..... a colonel in 1991.          | werden    |
| He..... as a cowboy.                 | arbeiten  |
| He..... a book about his adventures. | schreiben |