

9.1. Setze IS, ARE, DO oder DOES ein:

- ... Do ... you like action movies?
- he often go to the cinema?
- you a Bruce Willis fan?
- she like computers?
- you watching a scary movie tonight?
- What school you go to?
- Who those people talking to?
- your cat sleeping?
- Look! That dog stealing your sandwiches!
- Sara work in the afternoons?
- you writing this letter to your parents?

9.2. Why? – Because... Verbinde die Fragen mit den passenden Antworten:

Why are you eating a hamburger?
Why is your brother walking to work?
Why are you cleaning your bike?
Why aren't you coming to the cinema?
Why are you crying?
Why do you like her?

Because he can't drive.
Because it's very dirty.
Because I'm very hungry.
Because I'm very busy.
Because she's nice.
Because I'm sad.

9.3. Negative sentences. Verneine die Sätze:

- I like dogs. ... I don't like dogs.
- He is a cowboy. ... He isn't a cowboy.
- She likes hamburgers.
- I'm a Robbie Williams fan.
- He speaks English.
- She goes to Paris.
- Larry is at home.
- They are from Liverpool.

Vollverben werden mit DO umschrieben:
 I don't speak French.
~~I sleep not.~~ I don't sleep.

Hilfsverben: be, have, can, must, may, will
 I can't go to Vienna.
 You haven't got a car.
 She isn't here.