Bei jeder Aussage stehen vier Sätze. Einer hat den gleichen Sinn. Kreuze diesen an.

A car is faster than a bike, but slower than a train.

O A car is slower than a bike.

- O A car is very fast.
- O A car is the fastest.
- O A train is faster than a car.

Steven has a white cat and a black cat.

- O He has one cat.
- O Steven's cat is black and white.
- O He has two cats.
- O Steven likes brown cats.

Horst is German but Jakob isn't; he's Swiss.

- O Jakob comes from Germany.
- O Horst isn't from Germany.
- O Jakob isn't from Germany.
- O Horst and Jakob don't speak German.

She is the oldest woman in the world.

- O She is not as old as my grandfather.
- O Many men are older.
- O There are no older women anywhere.

O She's older than some other women.

You can't come in without a ticket.

- O You may come in if you have a ticket.
- O You mustn't go with a ticket.
- O You don't need a ticket to come in.
- O You cannot get your ticket outside.

Sue is looking after the kids.

- O She can see the children.
- O She is taking care of the children.
- O She is looking at the boys and girls.
- O The kids are in front of her.

They only have one TV-set for the family.

- O They only like videos.
- O They do not like any other things.
- O They do not have two TV-sets.
- O They have digital TV in every room.

What does Monica like?

- O What are her favourite things?
- O How is she?
- O Does she look like Monica?
- O Is he in love with Monica?

I want you to clean the kitchen when you come back.

- O You want to clean it.
- O We will clean it together.
- O I don't want you to forget to clean it.
- O I want to clean the kitchen.

Gary used to smoke cigarettes.

- O He is used to cigarettes.
- O He smoked before, but he doesn't now.
- O He usually smokes cigarettes.
- O He hated to smoke cigarettes.

Shall I take you to the station?

O Would you like me to take you to the station?

- O I must not take you to the station.
- O Will it be necessary to take you there?
- O Did I take you before?

You should talk more slowly.

- O You talk too quickly.
- O I think you would like to talk more slowly.
- O I understand you very well.
- O We talk faster.

We can hardly see it.

- O We always see very hard.
- O We are on the hard side.
- O We cannot see it very well.
- O It is hard to see us.

Robin had his motor-cycle painted white yesterday.

O He had to paint his motor-cycle white yesterday.

O His motor-cycle is not white.

O They painted his motor-cycle white for him yesterday.

O He painted his motor-cycle yesterday.

You don't have to write this test.

- O You can choose not to do this test.
- O You mustn't do it.
- O You can't write it.
- O You have no pen to write with.