

I WANT YOU, DIANA

GEORGE: Please marry me, Diana. I want you, I need you, I love you.

DIANA: I'm sorry, George, but I can't.

GEORGE: Oh, Diana. Why not?

DIANA: Well, George, I like you... I like you a lot ... but I don't love you.

GEORGE: But Diana, love isn't everything.

DIANA: Oh, George, you don't understand... for me love is everything.

GEORGE: Do you love another man, Diana?

DIANA: Yes, George, I do... I love Charles.

GEORGE: Not Charles Hilton!

DIANA: Yes, Charles Hilton.

GEORGE: But he doesn't want you. He's engaged.

DIANA: I know.

GEORGE: But Diana, Charles isn't a rich man. I can give you everything. What do you want?

Clothes? Money? Travel? A big house?

DIANA: No, George. I don't want those things. I only want Charles.
