

Al Capone was born in Italy and migrated with his family to America. He began his career as a criminal when he was a boy. He joined a street gang, the „Brooklyn Rippers“. Wounds in a barfight gave him the nickname „Scarface“.

In 1920 the sale of alcoholic drinks was banned in America. This „Prohibition“ lasted for 13 years. Many gangsters made a fortune selling alcoholic drinks illegally. Capone operated in Chicago. He became rich and powerful through crime. He was very brutal. He and his friends murdered seven members of a rival gang in the St Valentine’s Day massacre. Al Capone was not arrested because he bribed the policemen.

In 1932, Al Capone went to prison – for not paying income taxes! After a few years he came out. He was a sick man. He died at the age of 48.
